Curriculum Item Request: Proposal for New Degree or Major Programs, New Minor Proposals, or New Area of Emphasis

Please provide an explanation/justification for this request:

The English department is revising its Areas of Emphasis to better reflect current student interest and faculty availability. We are replacing 4 previous Areas of Emphasis (proposed for termination) with 3 new Areas of Emphasis. Please find included 3 proposals for new Areas of Emphasis in Professional Writing, Literature and Media, and Literatures of Empire, as well as 4 proposals for termination of the Areas of Emphasis in Humanities Computing, Rhetoric and Composition, Eighteenth-Century Literature, and English Language Studies. We have also included the Major Requirements (as instructed by the new proposals) and a version of our Bulletin with the proposed terminations removed (as instructed by the termination proposals).

As Department Head, you are affirming that the department procedures have been followed for approval with your unit.

PROPOSAL FOR TERMINATION OF AN AREA OF EMPHASIS

Date: February 5, 2025

School/College: Franklin

Department/Division: English

Area of emphasis to be terminated: Eighteenth-Century Literature

Major(s) and degree(s) the area of emphasis is offered under? English A.B.

Which campus(es) offer this area of emphasis? Athens

Proposed effective date: January 1, 2026

Last date students will be admitted to this area of emphasis: March 1, 2025

Last date students will complete this area of emphasis: December 15, 2025

Program Abstract:

Provide a brief summary of the area of emphasis being proposed for termination.

The area of emphasis in 18th-century Literature focuses on British and American literature written during the eighteenth century.

1. Why is this area of emphasis being proposed for termination?

We are replacing this Area of Emphasis with a new, related AoE in Literatures of Empire. Due to staffing changes we are no longer able to offer a sufficient number of classes in the AoE in 18th-century Literature. The new, related (but more expansive) Literatures of Empire AoE better matches current student interest and current faculty availability.

2. What will be done to ensure that termination of the area of emphasis does not weaken the major(s) under which it is offered?

We are adding a new, related Area of Emphasis in Literatures of Empire.

3. How will faculty and staff be notified of the termination? Will termination of the area of emphasis have any impact on the faculty and staff offering the area of emphasis?

Faculty and staff have already been notified; this change was approved unanimously by the English Department. Terminating the Area of Emphasis will have no impact on faculty or staff.

4. How will students be notified of the termination? How will students currently in the area of emphasis be advised to complete the requirements?

Currently, no students are enrolled in this Area of Emphasis. Should any be enrolled at the time of termination, the English undergraduate office will contact any affected students individually. Students will be advised to shift over to the new, related Area of Emphasis in Literatures of Empire.

5. What plans, if any, are there for subsequent reactivation of the area of emphasis?

None

6. Provide a revised program of study/Bulletin layout of the major's requirements once the area of emphasis has been removed.

The included revised Bulletin removes all four Areas of Emphasis being proposed for termination: Eighteenth-Century Literature, Rhetoric and Composition, Humanities Computing, and English Language Studies.
